Portfolio Manager Commentary

The annual effective yield settled at 11.2% at the end of October 2025 as the Fund Manager continued to focus on maintaining adequate liquidity while also lengthening its duration to anchor the yield at double digit levels, The Fund Manager's aim is to sustain a double digit annual effective yield that is above that of the 1-year Treasury Bill.

Kenya's year on year inflation remained steady at 4.6% in October similar to September as food inflation eased to 8.0% year on year from 8.4% last month. Fuel prices were maintained by the Energy and Petroleum Regulatory Authority which informed the steady inflation.

In October, the central bank cut its benchmark lending rate to 9.25% from 9.50% previously, saying there was room to ease monetary policy further as inflation remains well within its target range. Treasury Bill yields reduced by an average of 0.1% across all tenors as the 91,182 and 364-day Treasury bills closed the month at 7.86%, 7.87% & 9.35% from 7.91%, 7.99% & 9.53% respectively in the previous month.

Outlook: It's likely that headline inflation will get to 5.0% in Q4 2025 as seasonal price increases check in. We believe that the Monetary Policy Committee will cut the Central Bank Rate to 9.0% by year end informed by stable currency and inflation.
